At Kensington and Chelsea, we aim to be an inclusive workplace for all that reflects the communities we serve and where everyone is valued. We particularly welcome applicants from underrepresented backgrounds, including BAME, LGBTQ+ and those with hidden or visible disabilities. We're committed to ensuring all our staff – regardless of gender, age, religion, sexuality, ethnicity or disability – can succeed. We value diversity and appreciate that people work in different ways. At RBKC we provide flexible working arrangements and an empowering environment that enables you to be your best.
